Presently, there is no breakdown as to how many positions will go to each directorate, nor is there a breakdown of how many positions are projected for overseas. (U)

My source, [REDACTED], Office of the Comptroller, said he may be able to give us a more detailed breakdown by the end of August. (C)

In projecting the average grade for 1983, Dave said that 11.50 would be a reasonable figure for our purposes, however, we should be mindful that this is only an educated guess. (C)
